

Phillip B. Lombardo is an Administrator in Research Administrative Services and the Office of Research Information Services at Mayo Clinic. He has developed and implemented enterprise information systems at Mayo Clinic in a variety of administrative areas. Mr. Lombardo established the Mayo Clinic Data Governance program focusing on supporting data standards for the Enterprise Data Trust, terminology management services and metadata services. He currently establishes digital solutions across the Mayo Clinic research enterprise.